

BILLING POLICY

The Office of Student Accounts will email students' Adler University email address when billing information is available on Adler Connect.

100% of tuition and fees are due two weeks prior to the start of each term. All students are subject to the tuition due dates and must adhere to the following:

- Non-Financial Aid recipients – Payment is due two weeks prior to each term.
- Financial Aid recipients – Payment for any balance that will not be covered by financial aid is due two weeks prior to each term.
- Sponsored students – Third party documentation is due by the tuition due date.

Email reminders of balances owed will be sent to students' Adler email accounts.